What is stalking?

Stalking can take place in a variety of ways, but they produce the same result: repeated behaviour that causes the victim to fear for his or her personal safety. Here are some of the most common forms:

- bestowing unwanted attention on another person;
- following or shadowing another person;
- visiting a person at home or at work after being told not to do so;
- waiting on a street or in a parked vehicle outside the victim's home.
