What is domestic violence?

- Domestic violence occurs when the Respondent
- physically abuses you or damages property;
  - threatens such abuse or threatens to damage your property;
  - psychologically or emotionally abuses you;
  - forcibly confines you; or
  - sexually abuses you.

What is stalking?

- Stalking can take place in a variety of ways, but they produce the same result: repeated behaviour that causes the victim to fear for his or her personal safety. Here are some of the most common forms:
- bestowing unwanted attention on another person;
  - following or shadowing another person;
  - visiting a person at home or at work after being told not to do so;
  - waiting on a street or in a parked vehicle outside the victim's home.

(Please answer the following questions):

Describe the most recent time you or your child(ren) have experienced domestic violence and/or stalking from the Respondent:
