October 26, 2010

My name is Susie Waldner. I work as a senior caregiver from Winnipeg. I have known Lionel Bouchard for many years having grown up in St. Eustache, a small town neighboring Elie.

I was present the day Andy Bouchard offered to buy the family homestead from his father, Lionel Bouchard. The agreement included the provision that his father remain in his home for the rest of his life, paper work Lionel shared with me and destroyed when Andy Bouchard, Lynda Staub, Angie Bouchard and Claire Demery cleaned out his house against Lionel's wishes while he was in the hospital in January 2006.

After witnessing Andy, Lynda and Claire's behavior towards their father over the years, it is my firm position that Lionel needs a protection order at the very least. Furthermore, he needs a provision in this protection order so that the order not be varied or contested.

I have witnessed Andy screaming at his father Lionel on numerous occasions at the farm. Over the years, Andy has refused to pay what was rightfully due his father, in essence robbing his father of a carefree retirement. Lionel now has to pay rent in addition to losing the income from a room he rents out.

At the Holiday Inn, I saw Lynda and Claire pushing their clearly distraught father into Lynda's car against his will. at a family gathering.

When at the St. Eustache Manor, his three children, Andy, Lynda and Claire took turns isolating and restricting access to Lionel in person or by telephone.

Then in August 2008, I learned that Mike and Lionel had gone to the farm to get some of Lionel's personal items as arranged by their respective lawyers. Upon arriving at the farm, Lionel told me Andy had a psychiatrist in his truck with him – the same one Andy had taken his father to several times prior. This upset Lionel as obviously Andy had no intention of negotiating his returning home, rather Andy was still on his quest of two years prior to commit his father.

The reason Andy, Lynda and Claire are doing this to their father is because they want to take his legal, moral rights and freedom away, make him a ward of the court and in the process do away with their father, example Andy telling Marlene while Lionel was in the hospital recovering from a fall, that Lionel was never going home.

At the Grace Hospital, Andy told Marlene and myself that he had been looking to place his father in a mental institute in Portage La Prairie. This was early in the recovery stage of the concussion.

.....1

The third week in August 2008, Lionel came over with Mike Slegers. Lionel was acting totally out of character. He was terrified Mike would hear us talking, so he requested we sit in Mike's truck while Johnny Lafreniere, who I do home care for at his home in St. Francois, went out to the gazebo in the back with Mike. Lionel was very nervous in the house, not wanting to answer any questions. I felt that something had happened at Mike's and learned that Andy who now was over often, had provided Mike with a cellular to keep in contact, yet they had taken away Lionel's cellular and hidden it. Prior to this Lionel had not had contact for seven months when Lionel left wanting to get away from the pressure of his children went to live with Marlene in B.C. who then assisted and paid for her father to obtain legal representation.

I learned that the new 2007 Caravan Marlene had provided for her father's exclusive use, had been locked up in Mike's shed and a fifth wheel placed in front of the locked doors, on the pretext that trees might fall on the vehicle. Mike insisted that Lionel place the keys to his older Dodge van in the kitchen drawer in the event Mike needed to move the van in order to cut his grass. None of this made any sense to me. Knowing Lionel as well as I did, I knew he was being threatened and he feared for his life if he spoke out. Threats obviously had been made against Lionel to comply and to pressure him to give up his rights to his home. I saw Lionel as Mike's captive and believe that Mike was following Andy's instructions to ensure Lionel was never left out of his sight as it was obvious Lionel was not free to come and go or call anyone as he pleased. Mike informed me that Claire had stated that Andy would be paying Mike for returning their father to them and the figure of $5,000 was mentioned. The RCMP had to be called in to assist the two private investigators hired by Lionel's lawyer to retrieve Lionel's 2007 Caravan which had been locked up on Andy's direction.

Later that night, I received a call asking to drop off the contents of the van, and then the driver reconsidered. It is then that both Johnny and I watched all night until 3:30 a.m. or later as Andy Bouchard and Mike Slegers hid in the bushes across the street obviously waiting for the van to pull up. Johnny and I later reported the incident to the Headingley RCMP as it was obvious that Andy and Mike had been waiting to ambush the van and we were concerned if they had any weapons with them as they lay in wait for the van to arrive.

Lionel's belongings had been thrown haphazardly; jam packed into the van as Andy was furious he had been made to turn over the van ruining a lot of his possessions in the process.

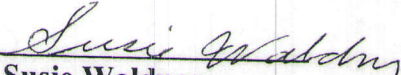

Lionel who had offered to drive Johnny and I to Winnipeg as neither of us drive, was now restricted in his driving by Mike and Andy.

Based on their past actions, I believe that Lionel's three children, and now Mike Slegers will never, going forward, ever let their father live in peace. Rather it is my belief they will continue to harass Lionel until he gives in and signs away his rights to his home and what is still due him or is pushed prematurely in the grave with stress, etc.

I understand the reason the original protection order was set aside was due to the fact that Lionel was unable to attend court for medical reasons.

Lionel is in grave danger without a protection order and I am voicing my very real concerns to the court and will hold the justice system responsible should anything happen to Lionel at the hands of his children, as the Court has been warned of what has transpired over the years and it has a duty to protect individuals – especially vulnerable seniors such as Lionel Bouchard.

8. THAT Heather Dixon had also provided me with a telephone number of Suzy Waldner, who is a friend of Lionel Bouchard. This woman resides in Winnipeg but when I attempted to phone her, found her number is no longer in service.

9. THAT I have been unable to effect service and feel reasonable effort has been made to serve Lionel Andre Bouchard. I therefore make this Affidavit bona fide in support of obtaining an Order for Substitutional Service.

Our File No. 260005/DMB

Further to our meeting on January 27, 2006, this is to confirm that you have retained me on a contingency fee basis regarding the above captioned matter.

You will recall that you had previously executed a Power of Attorney in favour of your son, Andre Bouchard, and had instructed him both verbally and in writing pursuant to a letter of January 13, 2006 to retain counsel regarding the incident.

At our meeting on January 27, 2006, you confirmed that you wished me to act for you on the contingency fee basis, pursuant to the agreement which had been executed by Andre on your behalf.

I am enclosing herewith a copy of the letter I have concurrently forwarded to the St. Eustache Church on your behalf. I will advise you of any response received from them or their insurer in due course.

In the meantime, I also confirm your instructions that you wished to revoke Andre's Power of Attorney and appoint your daughter, Claire Demery instead. Accordingly, I had prepared a Revocation of Andre's Power of Attorney and a new Power of Attorney in favour of Claire, which you executed in my presence.

I can indicate that I have discussed the matter with Claire and have concurrently forwarded a copy of the Power of Attorney to her. If you have any questions with respect this please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

As indicated, I would be charging you a flat fee of $80.00 to prepare the new Power of Attorney and Revocation of your previous Power of Attorney. Accordingly, I am enclosing herewith my Statement of Account in this regard totalling $85.60 and trust that you will find same in order. The Account has been paid by way of the funds received from your daughter, Marlene at our recent meeting.

My brother Andy Bouchard, barged into my Dad's home in ELIE, MANITOBA, with a key to be used only for emergencies as Dad is 82. My sister from CALGARY was on Dad's cellular phone which I passed to him. He left with Dad's only phone. I went to pick up my cell phone it was gone from its location. Then I noticed my business folder was also missing. In it was a copy revoking <sup>from Dad</sup> "Power of Attorney" in favour of Andy Bouchard as well as new one dated Jan 27/06 <sup>naming my sister or other business papers of mine</sup>. I got stuck in the snow in the yard & we did not have phones <sup>to</sup> call for help. My Dad (82) was released on Friday from Grace Hospital <sup>(after one month)</sup> from a fall on ice & concussion. Would request a peace bond OR no contact order for my Dad & myself as Andy Bouchard barged in 3 times Friday night using the Emergency key & has been harassing my Dad to try to place him a senior's home at the St. Eustache Manor. My Dad refuses to go & Andy tried to get him committed. When he was <sup>at</sup> the hospital immediately after the fall where Dad almost died, being rushed in ambulance, in a coma for 1/2 hour & losing a lot of blood. Andy told me in the hospital that Dad "was not - was not coming home".

JAN. 30/2006

July 27, 2006

ASSAULT - LYNDA STAUB, Winnipeg, Manitoba

On Friday, January 27, 2006, I attended the Grace Hospital in Winnipeg, at which time my 82 year old father was discharged in my care after a month-long stay in the hospital, having suffered a concussion when slipping on ice at a funeral and almost dieing in Grace Hospital Emergency after being unconscious for over one half hour and loosing a lot of blood.

My father had been coerced that Monday by Lynda Staub and Andy Bouchard to sign an application form for low-rental housing in St. Eustache after being deceived in believing that home support would not come to his home in Elie, Manitoba - a fact which proved to be untrue!

On Sunday, at 10:05 a.m., my sister Leona Bouchard, of Calgary, 403-281-4965, telephoned on my father's cellular phone to advise me that the family reunion set up as a result of Uncle Jules and Aunt Marguerite Bouchard of Kenora, Ontario, having come out for medical treatment in Winnipeg, was in truth a plot to "gang up on Dad and myself to remove my father from his home of over 50 years in Elie, Manitoba".

All of a sudden, Andy Bouchard walked in like an intruder without warning and startled Dad and myself, he must of had another key. After handing Andy the phone to talk to Leona, Andy stole both Dad's cellular and my cellular phone and legal binder, extremely angry that his shameful plan had been exposed by my sister calling from Calgary! To cut off further communication, Andy left for Winnipeg, 50 kms away from Elie, with my father's only phone along with my phone in his possession which posed a problem as I got stuck in snow in the yard after a fresh snowfall, in my rental vehicle, and had no way of calling anyone - especially since my father had just released two days prior from the hospital with a life-threatening head injury.

My father, Lionel Bouchard, was very upset, as well as myself, having just been intruded upon and then had our possessions stolen and our lifelines cut-off and we felt very violated and proceeded to stop at the R.C.M.P detachment to lay theft charges for Dad's cellular phone, his VISA card, my pocket PC phone and binder which contained revocation of Dad's Power of Attorney in favour of Andy Bouchard, redone to name another sister instead as my father stated he did not trust Andy and Andy was "always too busy for him" - all the while Andy more interested in spending time with wealthy clients in order to sell farm equipment instead of spending time with his own father. As Andy had refused his copy of the revocation the day prior, he was enraged when he found the notice on the outside of the front door of my father's home, as he had arranged for us to follow him to the reunion in Winnipeg, telling us all the while that there was another get-together planned at the Manor in St. Eustache, which Dad did not want to attend, Andy telling us this was "not a trap" as he had a birthday cake with him, deception again!

On January 29, 2006, at approximately 11:45 a.m., I arrived with my 82 year old father Lionel Bouchard, to the Banquet Room of the Holiday Inn, on Moray Street, in Winnipeg. We could feel the tension in the air.

When I got up to get some soup at the buffet, Lynda Staub grabbed my right arm forcefully and told me I had to go out to the vehicle with her. She continued to pull me towards the entrance despite my protests - all the while my telling her that I was hungry and that I wanted to eat my soup. She insisted that I go to the car with her. As Andy Bouchard had just been arrested at this same banquet room by the Winnipeg police prior to our arrival, I feared that I might be attacked outside in the parking lot by family members and refused to go.

Upon my sitting down, Lynda proceeded to push right against me while towering over me, trying to intimidate me in front of several witnesses, ordering me to go to her car, on the pretext of retrieving my portfolio binder which I knew was not in her possession, all the while creating an embarrassing scene in front of the others.

She then proceeded to grab my father, insisting that he go with her, against his protests and mine, as I had Dad's medication in my vehicle as he had just been discharged in my care, at his request that Friday a.m. from his month-long stay at the Grace Hospital. I had flown out from B.C. to escort him home and to provide home care for him in the interim, while awaiting home support scheduled for Wednesday, February 1 or earlier from the local health support nurses.

Between Lynda's and Andy's actions, having deceived the rest of the family into believing they were doing the honorable thing for our father, this precipitated a family feud. There was a great commotion and I was accused of hiding my father's jacket which was hung in the closet to the right in the banquet hall, but which they did not recognize as the usual jacket he wore. The scene turned ugly and very embarrassing, instigated by Lynda Staub and Claire Demery who obviously were acting on behalf of Andy Bouchard and meant to intimidate my father and strip him of his rights by forcing him to drop charges - having for years been the subject of bullying by son Andy, confirmed by sister Doreen Bouchard's, at 254-2949, in her emails. As my cellular had been stolen, I had no way of calling 911 and feared my father would be physically removed from the room if I left his presence. My father expressed earlier his fear to me stating that he wanted to "stay put" at home, as in his spirit he knew that his children planned to remove him from his home against his will and as stated in his statement to Manitoba Housing. My father did not wish to be relocated and was terrified this would be his fate and hence the reason I came out to support him.

On Saturday after returning home, my father had also discussed concerns to me about Andy taking advantage of him over the years and most recently when my father sold the last 80 acres to Andy with the provision that Dad retain the right to live in his home for the rest of his life. When Andy had transferred the land into his name, he intentionally failed to give my Witnesses to this incident include Joe & Margaret Bouchard of Kenora, Ontario, Peggy Keough of St. Charles and Suzie Waldner, 885-9557 of #308 - 559 Country Club, St. Charles.

I returned to B.C. and wish to file a complaint of assault against Lynda Staub who works at the Lower Level, 405 Broadway Street, Winnipeg Land Titles office.

LYNDA'S TYPED LIST
FOR ME TO
READ IN COURT!
~

Your name: Lionel André Joseph Bouchard

Name of Person that you want this order against: Marlene Mary Madeleine Legaré

Indicate below what has happened to cause you fear of personal injury (to you or your family) or damage to your property. Insure that you include the date/s in which the incidents occurred.

Marlene Legaré arrived in Winnipeg from Maple Ridge, BC on January 8, 2006 and remained in Winnipeg for 4 days. She contacted David Bradley of Wilder, Wilder and started proceedings on my injury claim by herself. She also insisted that a Power of Attorney be signed immediately with son, André Lionel Bouchard and daughter, Lynda Staub. It had been prepared previously by the law firm of Christianson, Christianson, Jones of Portage la Prairie but had not been signed yet.

Marlene Legaré arrived again unexpectedly from Maple Ridge on Friday, January 27, 2006 and had me discharged from the Grace Hospital after having been admitted on December 27, 2005 from a very bad fall and head injury and did not notify the rest of the family of her intentions. She immediately took me from the hospital to a lawyer's office and had me sign documents that I was not clear on as I was still confused from the head injury. She had me sign a new Power of Attorney in the name of my daughter Claire Demery without Claire's knowledge and a Living Psychiatric Will. She never submitted the new Power of Attorney to my daughter Clair but instead still has it in her possession in Maple Ridge. She cancelled all my home care arrangements including living accommodations that were in place and caused a lot of stress amongst the family. Marlene did not fill out my total prescriptions as requested in the Discharge papers from the Grace Hospital. She took me to the Bank of Montreal and we did transactions on my account that I am not clear on. i.e. There was a large $1,000 cash deposit and withdrawal made immediately after. All this took place on Friday, January 27, 2006 between 10:40 a.m. after release from the hospital and approximately 6:00 p.m. when we arrived home in Elie.

She purchased new locks for my home without me knowing. On Sunday, January 29, 2006 at a breakfast at the Holiday Inn Airport West she hid my coat and medication which was in the pockets of my coat. When asked to return the balance of my prescription medications from her car she left with my medication and my other daughters were forced to refill the prescriptions at Shopper's Drug Mart later that day.

Marlene spent 2 evenings (January 27 and 28, 2006) with me and was up till all hours of the morning. It was during this time that I believe my Passport went missing and it still has not been located.

On February 2, 2006 she again arrived unexpectedly from Maple Ridge to my home late at night – approximately 9:15 p.m. and scared me by throwing snow in my window to get my attention. She then knocked on the door and gave me two bottles of prune juice. Roland Bouchard, my nephew, attended at my house and at that point I phoned the police and made a report with RCMP Constable A.J. Pasquini (cell 290-7276, office 888-0358) and asked that Marlene Legaré not contact me anymore. She continues to call my cell phone.

She has been in contact with my friends and relatives and has disturbed the community and family with her lies and accusations about my other children. I continue to get on going calls from her and have asked her to stop contacting.

Times of call to cell phone:

Wednesday, February 1, 2006 – 3:29 pm

Wednesday, February 1, 2006 – 3:42 pm

Wednesday, February 1, 2006 – 3:50 pm

Wednesday, February 1, 2006 – 7:01 pm

Wednesday, February 8, 2006 – 8:13pm

Friday, February 10, 2006 – 1:30 pm, 1:32 pm, 1:34 pm, 1:39 pm, 5:15 pm, 9:16 pm

Saturday, February 11, 2006 – 1:30 pm, 1:31 pm, 1:42 pm, 2:55 pm

I do not wish to have any contact with Marlene Legaré. I feel that she has personal problems and inat she has her own personal reasons for contacting me that are not for my well-being.

I am afraid as to the reasons behind her constant calling me. I do not trust her because of her past actions. She is unpredictable and continues to harass me with her endless calls and unexpected visits.

1 MS. LEGARE: Or move him.
2 THE COURT: Okay. So what you were saying is that 3 when everybody signed that, the idea was that that would
4 keep peace with Marlene, and get her back to Vancouver, so
5 then you could deal with what you felt your dad was doing?
6 ANDY → THE WITNESS: And the other thing is she was 7 agreeing to drop the charges against me by signing that.
8 That was part of the agreement.
9 THE COURT: Okay. I -- obviously --
10 BROTHER MS. LEGARE: That's --
11 ANDY → THE WITNESS: So we felt -- we felt we didn't --
12 we shouldn't have to go to court for the accusations, and it
13 would save everybody a lot of trouble, so I says I'll sign
14 it if she drops the charges, and it helps her, for peace of 15 mind. I do have Dad's rental agreement, and another form
16 that he signed, and I wish to present it.
17 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay. Well, like I say, I
18 don't know how, whether he feels he's under pressure or not,
19 and unfortunately --
20 THE WITNESS: Well, it explains -- it explains the 21 terms of his rent, and --
22 MS. LEGARE: So what? So what? He didn't want to 23 go there. When I took him home, he said to you three times
24 over he wanted -- to remain in his home, not moved to a low
25 THE COURT: Yeah. Hang on. Talk to me. rental housing
26 MS. LEGARE: Sorry. complex 100
27 THE COURT: What's the answer to that? Is it --
28 THE WITNESS: Self-explanatory.
29 THE COURT: Well, yeah, but he signed an
30 agreement. Right?
31 THE WITNESS: Yes.
32 THE COURT: I have already heard from your side of 33 things here that he signed a power of attorney that he
34 didn't mean to sign, or didn't want to sign at a lawyer's

1 THE WITNESS: [REDACTED]

3 my dad has a fall, and she flies into Winnipeg, starts this
4 insurance claim. I really feel that she's looking to invest
5 his money, and maybe -- [REDACTED]
6 And I -- she's caused a lot of disruption in the family.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 THE WITNESS: And the last two months it's been a
9 nightmare. I've missed four days of work. And we just want
10 this to go away. We want her to go back to Vancouver where 11 she's been for the last, since she was 18. She moved away.
12 She's only -- she's never spent a week with my dad, ever.
13 In the whole time that she's moved away, she moved away when 14 she was 19. And now she shows up, and ready to file an 15 insurance claim. Like, what's the hurry? It's all suspect.
16 She's scaring the family with all this. We want her to go
17 home. And that's basically --

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thanks. Well, you understand,
19 and I hope you understand really clearly now, that this 20 court can do nothing about that.

21 THE WITNESS: Um-hum.

22 THE COURT: There may be another court that might 23 make that order some day. But this court does not, cannot 24 do anything about that at all. So that's unfortunate, but 25 that's just the way it goes. I have my jurisdiction. And 26 this is an 810 application, under the Criminal Code. It is 27 not an application that sorts out family problems, and sorts
28 out where people go, and whether they stay away because 29 other people just don't want them around. But thank you for 30 that.

31 Okay. Let's try -- now I want to hear from -- you
32 can just -- you can get down from the stand, and sit back.

Subject: RE: Dad's Birthday

The email starts at the bottom of the page.....

Lynda,

Were you aware that Dad was left alone on Saturday, after a serious concussion, to fend for himself, after he left the hospital very white and shaky, after almost dieing in Emergency, according to the nurses who told him that later, and after being unconscious for over 1/2 hour and loosing the amount of blood that he did? We know the hospitals now-a-days discharge patients way too soon assuming they are getting care at home?

Now tell me, wouldn't any responsible son/daughter ensure that their Dad was monitored for the first day or so if he was left on his own as you hear case after case of people dieing from concussions.

Remember Baseball Chabot? That is exactly what happened to him, he was not taken to the hospital quick enough and later died unnecessarily.....

Who knew Dad was home alone or asked to look after him or keep a close eye where they?

Someone told me that they went to visit Dad on Monday and were disturbed enough with the change they saw that they tried to get hold of you but did not have your telephone # and where trying to get your# but did not have it.

They told me they where that concerned and knew the gravity of the situation and that he needed further medical attention. Dad supposedly did not answer his cell for the next few days.....

So he was not receiving the help that he needed at that crucial time after his injury!

Dec. 20/05
Also Dad's roommate Garth called Andy Bouchard on Tuesday night to express his concern, i.e. Dad was leaving his van lights on, and other unusual behaviour (but par for the course for a head injury meaning complications).

→ David Bradley, of Wilder & Wilder Law Firm, Richardson Bldg.
Andy told someone, officially, that "for whatever reason" he chose not follow up. The next contact with family was Christmas Day, SIX days later, after Dad drove himself to your place! My impression is that Andy did not care whether Dad lived or die!

I "felt" here in B.C., that something was not right and my suspicions were correct.

Dad if he would like to live at the St. Eustache Manor until there is room in Elie and he said "Why Not?"
 - Uncle Laurent is there as well as 6 other people.

Dad's roommate Garth will be moving out by middle of February or so after he is finished dismantling the equipment at the Straw Plant in Elie cause they are closing. When Garth moves out that means that Dad would be living alone at the farm which is probably not a good idea - and he does want to go to the Elie Manor. or St. Eustache. so we will take it one day at a time and see how he progresses. He seems to be getting better during the day and recalls what he said a few days ago and specifically recalls that he did a few things wrong at the hospital so all in all I do think he is making progress. Right now he does get angry if he does not get things his way - like he wants the Phone Book - but the nurses are restricting him as he phones out too much. We will do our best to be there for Dad - his 82nd birthday is on Sunday and we are planning cake and coffee at the Hospital Cafeteria in early afternoon. So that's it for now - we are doing our best and would appreciate everyone's moral support.

God Bless..Love Lyn

P.S. Dad also dropped off 3 pairs of shoes to the shoemaker after the accident to put on treads on the bottom so guaranteed he won't fall again - gotta make time to go and get them now, they are ready for pick up as well as his drycleaning .. now going on midnight and I have to be up at 5:30 for 7:00 am start. Goodnight..

Subject: Lionel Bouchard, Grace Hospital, Room 515, 837-8311- Visiting Hours: 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Mr. Bradley,

I just spoke to Dad's 45 year old roommate - Garth who confirmed that the plant in Elie is presently dismantling and that he will probably be leaving in mid-February unless he is made an offer he can't refuse from the new owners.

Contrary to what Andy told my father, Garth has no intentions of moving his wife and kids into Dad's home. His wife works in the Health field in Neepawa and his daughter is finishing her last year of high school and definitely not switching schools. The other daughter is already in University.

In talking to Dad, he felt he did not have any choice but to go to the Manor in St. Eustache.... because of what Andy told him.....that his space was needed on the farm.

Garth's cellular # is 204-476-6731 and he is also of the same opinion that Dad would not be happy in the manor as he is too independant and active. The # at Dow Chemical where he works is 204-353-5100.

He mentioned that he was very concerned about Dad's health and more importantly about Dad's ability to drive when he had called my brother who did nothing about the call. Also Dad had forgotten to lock the front door, which is out of character for him and left the interior van lights on. Also Dad told him that he could remember things in the '40's but had trouble remembering what had just gone on (short-term memory) and that is what concerned Garth that he might at this point leave an element on the stove and that is why he called Andy. He too was surprised that Dad had come out of the hospital so soon considering the seriousness of the fall and bleeding, etc. His wife explained that the hospitals today are more concerned about secondary infection, in other words, the longer they stay in the hospital the more chances of getting an infection, though he said he did not necessarily buy that as his father was in for an operation, let out the next day and had a stroke and died at home a couple days later, so he is not impressed with the health system.

He also said that he could not keep up with Dad and did not know where he got his energy and could not believe when Dad told him he would be 80 years old a couple years ago as he thought he was in his mid-60's!

So again, is there anything that can be done to ensure that Dad goes home and not to the Manor at this point?

The home support could be done at either location and was recommended by the hospital initially, today he will be reassessed again.

THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Okay. Okay. Thank you.
You can have a seat back there, Ms. Demery.

THE WITNESS: Can I ask one more thing?

THE COURT: Yeah.

THE WITNESS: I was never asked to be power of attorney. I never knew about it.

THE COURT: Yeah.

THE WITNESS. And now I was told that there's a sworn document, affidavit of execution, that is missing. I do not have -- I do not have the original power of attorney. Should I have this, and all the information that goes with it? Where is the sworn affidavit that was saying that somebody was there to witness Dad signing this? Like I said, I never, I never asked for --

THE COURT: Well, I -- yeah -- unfortunately, you're asking a judge questions that should be asked of a lawyer, and that's what I would do.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

THE COURT: As far as power of attorney is concerned --

THE WITNESS: Like, who --

THE COURT: -- your dad can make one out when he feels like it, if he has, if someone determines that he's still in his right mind to do so, so as far as -- yeah. Like, all of those questions should be asked of a lawyer.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

THE COURT: There is certainly nothing criminal

1 agreement with my brother verbally, and --

2 THE COURT: And why should your brother have to
3 pay his rent for ever?

4 MS. LEGARE: Well, because Dad reduced the price
5 of the home when he sold it to him. And he had the option
6 to remain there the rest of his days. *

7 THE COURT: Well, you know what? That's something
8 between your father and your brother.

9 MS. LEGARE: Yeah. But my dad was upset, he told
10 me, because Andy did not put his end in writing.

11 THE COURT: Well, you know what? It's something
12 between your father and your brother.

13 MS. LEGARE: True. True. I agree.

14 THE COURT: Your father has, can walk. I've seen
15 this. He can walk down to a lawyer. He can go and talk to 16 a lawyer if he feels his legal rights have been violated..

17 MS. LEGARE: Yeah. They have been.

18 THE COURT: It's none of your business. Actually,
19 it's none of your sisters' business, either, as well.

20 MS. LEGARE: Exactly. But I'm there to protect my 21 dad, because Andy's manipulating him.

22 THE COURT: Well, that's -- well, you know what?
23 I don't know that. Okay. Like I say, I don't think anybody
24 in this family -- I mean -- I don't think you realize the 25 kind of pressures you're putting on your dad. I don't 26 think, with all due respect to you, sir, that you've been 27 playing fair ball, either. And that's pretty clear. You
28 know that. I know that. In the middle of all of this, it
29 wasn't an emergency for your dad to move, but he was moved,
30 which is really sad in a lot of ways. *

31 MS. LEGARE: He hasn't been moved yet.

32 THE COURT: But in any event, you've had him in 33 the hospital, tossed him out, the family has, and then 34 tossed him into a lawyer's offices, and then the family has

TO BROTHER
ANDY!

1           As the court has said many times this morning,
2 this is a section 810 application, and the court has to be
3 satisfied of one of two things; that there will be personal
4 injury to the applicants by the defendant, or that the 5 applicants' property may be damaged by the defendant. And 6 one or both of those requisites must be met for the order to 7 be granted.

8           As the court has indicated several times this 9 morning, there are many issues in this family, and those 10 issues should be solved by mediation, hopefully, but if not,
11 certainly by proper legal advice, and by court actions if 12 that's what everybody feels is necessary. And when the 13 court indicates court actions, it does not mean criminal
14 law, because so far, the court has found nothing of any 15 criminal nature here this morning, one way or the other.

16           So the question is, have any of the applicants
17 proven either or both of those prerequisites? The answer is 18 clearly in the negative.

30           But the simple fact of the matter is that Ms.
31 Legare has made no threats to any member of her family,
32 including her father. She has not threatened the property
33 of any of them. And therefore, each of the peace bond
34 applications is dismissed.
