TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This will serve to confirm that I met Marlene Legare at the Maple Ridge Community Church, here in Maple Ridge, June 1996. Since then Ms. Legare has been my financial planner and tax consultant for myself, my husband, sons and step-daughter. In addition, there are several other members of the Church for whom she has provided RRSP's, insurance and tax preparation services. There is absolutely no basis for those slanderous accusations as stated by Crown in transcript of May 10, 2006! We have all been in her office-in-home numerous times over the years and she runs a very efficient and professional business largely based on referrals.

Sincerely,

Marline Steele

To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Marlene Legare since 1973. Marlene is a hard worker, and very professional with a highly successful Mutual funds and Insurance sales practice.

We have worked together as associates since 1991, and have attended many meetings together, as well as worked for the same company at times, over the years.

We have visited in each others offices and homes over the years, and I have been privy to her socially, with her and her family. What I know of Marlene is that she is of strong integrity and character, contrary to the accusational slurs that have been unjustly and without merit used to try to discredit her.

Yours truly,

Rose Kreutzwieser

Re: Marlene M. M. Legare

I first became acquainted with Mrs. Legare in mid 1974. At that time she was employed in the Compensation and Benefits section of Canada Post Corporation. Her duties involved all aspects of pay and benefits administration as well as the handling and distribution of employee cheques, providing advice and guidance to employees regarding pension options, disability insurance, transferring funds to RRSP's and calculations regarding pay entitlements.

Mrs. Legare also worked in the Accounts Payable/ Receivable section of Canada Post Corporation. Her duties required her to handle cheques and or cash on a daily basis.

Throughout Mrs. Legare's employment with Canada Post Corporation, she proved herself to be an honest, loyal and valued employee.

Yours truly,
